

PRESENTS
A YOUTH ENGAGEMENT WITH
GEORGE CHUVALO
• FIGHT AGAINST DRUGS •

George Chuvalo was the reigning Canadian Heavyweight Boxing Champion for 21 years, from 1958 until 1979. Ranked in the top 10 of the World Boxing for much of his career, George faced many of the best fighters of this century: Muhammad Ali, George Foreman, Floyd Patterson, Ernie Terrell, Joe Frazier, Jerry Quarry and many others. George retired from boxing in 1979 as the undisputed Heavyweight Champion of Canada. In 1990, he was inducted into the Canadian Sports Hall of Fame. After his boxing career, George took various parts in a number of movies, including The Fly, Prom Night Three, The Untouchables and most recently, Dirtyworks.

Today, George speaks to students, parents and other groups about drugs and how they have impacted his life. He lost 3 sons and a wife as a result of substance abuse. His graphic recollection of events and his expressive nature enable him to convey his powerful message. The feedback he receives has been positive, appreciative and encouraging. Being a father to drug addicted sons provides him with the insight and wisdom required to capture any listener. His presentations are in demand from coast to coast.

Join us for an exclusive engagement with George Chuvalo as he shares his personal story and delivers a very powerful message about one of the hardest fights of all...
